

Real Discipleship Survey

Conference-wide license for the use of the Real Discipleship Survey offered by Excellence in Ministry Coaching.

Deliverables

- Conference wide access (every member of every congregation) to the on-line version of the Real Discipleship Survey.
- Each person taking the survey receives immediate feedback through a 15-page report providing:
  - Overview of discipleship including dimensions and phases of development
  - Matrix with self-identified placement on continuum for each dimension of discipleship
  - A two-page summary for each dimension including:
    - Brief description of dimension
    - Personalized placement for that dimension with description
    - Suggested next steps for personal development
    - Suggested resources to support development
- The Administrator for each church receives access to a summary matrix identifying the percentage of people taking the survey who placed themselves in each of the phases of development for each dimension of discipleship
- Congregations may identify up to 10 groups to receive a summary matrix (e.g. UMW, Sunday School class)
- District Administrators receive access to a summary matrix (described above) for the District
- Conference Administrator receives access to a summary matrix (described above) for the Conference

Benefits

- Starts a conversation within the congregation and Annual Conference about intentional discipleship

- Provides individual insight into level of maturity as a disciple and opportunities for personal development
- Provides congregational leadership (discipleship team/pastor) specific insight into the identified needs in the discipling process
- Equips coaches/disciplers with the tools to have significant conversations about continuing growth for individual disciples
- Encourages congregations to provide intentional relationships and educational support for the development of disciples
- Moves discipleship from a program emphasis to a process and a clearly defined pathway toward maturity

Fee Structure

The Cal-Pac Conference is under a special discounted agreement of approximately 50% of the normal pricing structure. The Conference fee is $1000 for 12-months of usage.
